Netflix - Charlottes web:

Charlotte web is a good family friendly movie most people may of seen already when they where young but even today it shows to still be a great movie for the whole family to enjoy.

Netflix and Stan - Wallace & Grommet: The Curse of the Were-Rabbit: this movie is an impressive example of what stop motion animation is capable of and still is a entertaining movie for the whole family.

Netflix and Stan-(Shrek 1,2 and 3)(Madagascar 1,2 and 3):

these are a small collection of some of the best DreamWorks movies to have come out in recent years. These films will hopefully bring the family together for a few movie nights during quarantine.
